

Advent Reflection
December 18, 2020
LOVE
Luke 2:8-20 NRSV

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!" When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Reflection by Matt W.

For many, the dark of night can feel like a fearful time, filled with anxiety and uncertainty. Yet, it was during these hours of darkness that the glory of God pierced the Heavens with the Light of Christ. As the angels heralded the birth of the Messiah, anxiety was replaced by peace and fear with hope.

As we, in this 2020 year of uncertainty, journey through Advent and prepare for the celebration of Christmas, may we just as Mary did ponder in our hearts, the promises of God in Christ Jesus Our Lord.
